

Fact file

Project Manager HMC specified Corian for this contemporary reception desk in Queens Square London - just behind Russell Square tube station. Decra's solid surfacing fabrication department manufactured the reception desk which has integral lockable cupboards and shelf. Established for over 50 years Decra have built an enviable reputation for the crafting of these materials into high quality reception desks.

Case Study - reception desk

Integral matching shelf.

Lockable under cupboards.

